

unesco

Austrian National Commission

UNESCO Talk:

Rethinking cultural policies

Learning from international experiences

13. DECEMBER 2022

10:00 - 15:00 (CET)

Federal Ministry for Arts, Culture, the Civil Service and Sport (Room Oscar),
Concordiaplatz 2, 1010 Vienna

Topics discussed:

Social conditions & precarity

Sustainable regional development

Visa: global asymmetries

INVITATION

The event will be held in German and English.

Register until 10. Dezember 2022 at www.unesco.at

How are the multiple crises changing working conditions in art and culture?

How does cultural work contribute to sustainable regional development?

What role do marginalised cultural actors play in the discussion about visas and residence?

& what impetus does UNESCO provide in this regard?

The Austrian Commission for UNESCO (ÖUK) and ARGE Kulturelle Vielfalt invite you to the to the UNESCO Talk: Rethinking cultural policies. We will focus on questions whose public negotiation is indispensable for democratic cultural policies. Impulses from artistic, scientific and activist perspectives open up the following discussions. The starting point for the impulses is the UNESCO World Cultural Report of 2022.

Opening Remarks

Kathrin Kneissel (BMKÖS) & Martin Fritz (ÖUK)

Young, flexible and unattached?

Focusing on: Social conditions and precarity

With: Daniela Koweindl (ARGE Kulturelle Vielfalt & IG Bildende Kunst), Anna Gaberscik (artist), Anita Moser (Inter-University Organisation Science and Arts)

Cultural work as a catalyst

Focusing on: sustainable regional development

With: Fiston Mwanza-Mujila (author & Forum Stadtpark), Alina Zeichen (IG KiKK), Olga Kolokytha (University of Vienna & University for Continuing Education Krems)

Mobility, Visa & Residence made difficult

Focusing on: global asymmetries

With: Sabine Kock (ARGE Kulturelle Vielfalt & Smart Mobility), Rémi Armand Tchokothe (Universität Wien), Daria Tchapanova (artist) und Ayşe Çağlar (Uni. Wien)

Each of the topics will be followed by a discussion in which all participants are invited to contribute their expertise. Join the discussion!

Sum-Up und Network-Lunch